"JEALOUSY OF NORTHERN MEN." A Knoxville correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette complains of the jealousy of Northern men entertained by the Radical party in this State :

There crops out in Tennessee politicsand that too, on the Union side mainly -a renewal of the spirit of antagonism and dislike to Northern men. Among those is power, "native and to the manner born," there is an evident jealousy of the Northers men who have so actively participated in the struggle by which Lenne see has been placed in the advance. There is too much reason to fear that this summer's success will result in the inauguration of a spirit which must produce incalculable mischiel Let me illustrate what I mean by the facts in the late contest over the Union. nomination for Congress in the Nashville district. Judge Lawrence is an Ohioan, Mr. Trimble a Tennessean. The former I know to have been one of the most faithful and ablest workers for the true welfare of the people and State. He was agent of the Bureau. Mr. Trimble is also a true friend of loyalty and freedom, a scholar and an admirable lawyer. Whether he participated in the motives which were most apparent in opposing Lawrence, I do not know, but do not believe he did. The entire canvass against Lawrence was conducted on the ground that being a Northern man he ought not to be nominated. Those most influential among the white Republicans took that ground, Gov. Brownlow was forced into the quarrel, as also Colonel Stokes—the latter, I learn, much against his will. It was openly asserted by leading Tennesseans "that citizens of Northern birth ought not to be placed in high office. The question of fitness did not enter in. They must "remain in the back-ground for some years to come." Representative Arnell, of Columbia, was the principal man who resisted this domina-The language given above was nttered in the presence of Northern men who had fought for the Union, on ground where 60,000 of their comrades lay sleep-ing-martyrs in defense of "the Union and

This spirit did not cease with the nomi-nation of Mr. Trimble, and the declination of Judge Lawrence of a bolting nomination proffered him. The editor of the Stants Zeitung, at Nushville, the only Radical German daily in the South, who first advecated Mr. Lawrence's claims, but sustained Trimble when nominated, has been punished for having a mind of his own by the withdrawal of all State patronage from his paper, which, of course, affects his stability. Mr. Lawrence, though working for his opponents, is not left alone. It is to be regretted that this narrow minded bigotry should prevail. It is going to be a feature yet, I fear, in Southern politics, and will, if it should progress as the manifestations of it in Tennessee would intimate, be a very pretty weapon to play into the hands of those Southern leaders who are striving to make it appear that the Northern men's aim is a war of races. The freed people will, in the main, stand by their friends of Northern birth and principles, who have struggled for them on grounds other than sellish necessity of this State- and by men who had never

MARSHALL COUNTY.

Interesting Statement of the Internal Condition of the County-Report of the Grand Jury, June Term, 1867. 1st. On official bonds, etc., we find bonds of the public officers all good with sufficient security. 2d. On public buildings. The offices of the clerks in good condition, also the jail i well furnished and all in good condition The courthouse we find a good deal abased, particularly the upper rooms, windows and doors, some of the rooms having been abused by parties that have no right to occupy them. We would suggest that the Sheriff be instructed to keep the doors closed, except to those who have the privilege of entering the same.

3d. On public roads, we find the following roads without overseers, to wit From Farmington William's store, from Wm. D. Ewing's to Collin's mill, from the Lewisburg and Shelbyville pike to Cotton's shop, from Coleman's shop to Author's mill, from Mrs. Cooper's to Gites county line, from Shaving Machine to Mo-Collinn's gap.

4th. On the subject of turnpike roads, we find that there are four roads running from Lewisburg, one to Shelbyville, one to Cornersville, one to Franklin and one to Mooresville. The first three have been receiving toll under an act passed by the Legislature in 1865, and bave expended the means so collected in building bridges and repairing the roads; some of them have borrowed money to repair their roads The bridge across Duck river on the Lewisburg and Franklin pike was burned, and will be rebuilt this fall, that is the calculation if not interfered with. It is all the bridge that has not been rebuilt on the turnpikes in this county. The Mooresville pike appears to have been abandoned by the stockholders for six or seven years and the County Court has appointed over seers on the different sections of said road. We would ask the elemency of court in regard to the roads that are making honest efforts to get their roads in the order that their charter requires. We, the undersigned, grand jurors of the county of Marshall, for the June term 1867, of the Circuit Court of Marshall county, coming from the body of the perple whom we represent, do state the fo lowing facts: that his Honor Hilary Ward has ably, fait' fully and impartially conducted and presided over the deliberations of this court as becomes a learned and up-2d. That the members of the attending court, amongst whom we particularly include the bar resident in Lewisburg, have been prompt, able and true to the noble profession to which they are devoted. 3d. That our thanks and high esteem are dne A. C. Hickey, Esq., Attorney General pro tom., for the vigilant, talented, faithful, humane and generous manner in which he has, to the satisfaction of all, discharged his official duties. 4th. And particularly we state and can hear witness to the general good order, quiet, sobriety, industry and loyalty of our whole people embracing all classes and 5th. That these resolutions coming from the grand jurors of Marshall county, be ablished in the Union and DISPATCH and the Press and Times, in the city of Nushville, also the American Union, selbyville, with the solmn fact that the e of Marshall county are more quiet with less violation of law than at any time interior to the civil war. 6th. That our thanks are due to the court, the Attorney General, the officers of the court, and to the citizens generally, for the courteous and respectful decorum al have exhibited during this three weeks' session of the Circuit Court. That Col. James R. Neill, the Sheriff, his deputies, the constables of the court, have our warmest thanks for the kind and attentive manner in which they have discharged their duties to us and the whole court. JAMES V. EWING, Forman. Isaac H. Williams, Leroy L. Farmer, Hiram Harris, Gideon B. Dysart, Joseph G. Rosson, Joseph Adams, Newton McQuiddy, Samuel Davis, John Porter, William Bills, and W. F. Dyer, Constable,

The Merchants' and Manufacturers' ewelry Association calls your attention to fact of its being the largest and most popular the fact of its being the largest and most popular Jeweiry Asseciation in the United States. The business is and always has been conducted in the most candid and honorable manner. Our rapidly increasing trade is a sure guarantee of the appreciation of our patrons for this method of obtaining rich, elegant and coatly goods. The sudden stagnation of trade in Europe, owing to the late German war, and recent disastrous financial crisis in Europe, has caused the failure of a large number of sewelry houses in London and Paris, obliging them to sell their goods at a great ascrince, in some instances less than one-third the cost of manufacturing. We have lafely purchased very largely of these bankrupt goods, at such extremely low prices that we can afford to send away finer goods, and give better chances to draw the most valuable prices than any other establishment doin reimilar business. OUR to draw the most valuable prizes than any other establishment doin reimilar business. OUR AIM IS TO PLEASE, and we respectfully solicit your patronage, as we are confident of giving the utmost satisfaction. During the past year we have forwarded a number of the most valuable prizes to all parts of the country. Those who patronize us will receive the full value of their money, as no article on our list is worth less than one dollar, retail, and there are no blanks. Parties dealing with us may depend on having prompt returns, and the article drawn will be immediately sent to any address by return until or express.
